

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. In airing an anti-Kerry documentary, without also presenting a pro-Kerry documentary, only partisan and not public interests are served. When large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Thank you.
